8.4 The Council shall consider all applications for admission, and shall have the power and discretion to approve or refuse admission to a candidate without assigning a reason. Such applications as are approved shall be placed upon the Waiting List. Notwithstanding approval of an application by the Council in the first instance, each application, upon reaching the top of the Waiting List, shall be remitted to the Council for reconsideration and the Council shall have the power and discretion to approve or refuse, without assigning a reason, the admission of a candidate to membership of the Club.

8.5 It shall be at the discretion of the Council to place at the top of the Waiting List, any candidates who, whether on account of special skill in golf or otherwise, are deemed by them to be especially desirable as Members, but not more than five candidates shall receive such preferential treatment in any Year.

8.6 Subject to Rules 8.4 and 8.5, approved candidates shall be admitted to membership of the Club strictly according to the date of application. The Secretary shall intimate in writing to the approved candidate his/her admission to membership and send him/her a copy of the Rules. If the approved candidate has not paid his/her Entry Fee (if any) and Annual Subscription in the manner prescribed by Council within one month of such intimation his/her admission to membership will be automatically rescinded

Completed forms should be returned to:

The Secretary
